IQS Named to CIOReview’s 20 Most Promising QMS Solution Providers 2016

FREMONT, CA—November 22, 2016—IQS announced today that it has been selected by CIOReview as one among 20 Most Promising QMS Solution Providers 2016.

“It’s a great honor to announce IQS as one of the 20 Most Promising QMS Solution Providers 2016,” said Jeevan George, Managing Editor of CIOReview. “IQS offers myriad resources for learning more about what’s happening in Quality today.”

IQS Audit Management Software holds professionals and departments more accountable without taking up as many resources. The solution also includes the ability to create audit templates, customized reporting, charts, and quality management system queries. Managing online and offline audits can be done from a mobile device, with the IQS app available in the App Store and Google Play. With an automotive-focused QMS Software including document control, mobile audits, analytics, CAPA workflows, training, and supplier quality modules, as well as quality-focused SPC, PPAP, APQP, and FMEA modules, IQS makes sure clients stay at the top of the preferred vendor list.
